

Podpěra's Support of Young Beekeepers 2

Task 1

1. A bee _____ is a type of grating. Worker bees can go through it, but the queen bee can not. It divides a brood chamber of a honey chamber.
2. It is a desk that is made of beeswax. It has got a hexagonal relief. Bees build their combs on it.
3. There are several types of activities with honey bees. We use sugar and water in this activity.
4. A substance that is made by bees. We can make candles of it.
5. A male bee
6. It is an activity when we transform a small larva from a cell to a artificial queen cell.

7. It is an activity when we use a gadget to gain honey from bee combs. This gadget uses a centrifugal force.
8. A smaller building where beehives are under a roof.
9. Fructose or glucose are examples of _____ .
10. It is a substance (liquid) that a bee use for protecting.
11. Beekeepers in the Czech Republic take it in winter. They do it for varroa monitoring.
12. A box for bees.
13. A "hole" in a beehive. Bees use it entering or flying from a beehive.
14. The biggest bee in a bee colony.
15. We can find about 30 thousand bee - _____ in a bee colony.
16. A _____ frame is used for breeding bee queens. An inventor of this frame was awarded in Apimondia in 1987.
17. A part of a beehive. Bees built their combs in it.
18. Bees eat it for protein.

Solution

In the solution you can find an interesting part of one Czech town near Austria. I recommend you to visit it.

